12. Elijah took Elisha aside. "The Lord has told me to go to the Jordan _____," he said, "but you might as well stay here."
13. [Wednesday's lesson] Read 2 Kings 2:1-15 again. Think Have you ever been handed down a special family _____? If not, ask the adults in your family if they have. How did you or they feel when you were given that gift?
1. When they arrived at the Jordan River, Elijah stopped at the water's edge. He took off his camel-hair _____ & struck the water with it.
2. Elisha knew already. He wanted to be treated as elder sons were treated. He wanted a _____ portion. Not a _____ portion of riches. Elijah had no riches. But Elijah had God's Spirit upon him. Elisha knew that if he could receive a _____ portion of this Spirit, he would truly be Elijah's successor.
3. The very air glowed. & a _____ of fire pulled by horses of fire whooshed between them. It snatched up Elijah, but his cloak fell from him back to the ground.
6. When Elijah & Elisha arrived in the bustling city of Jericho, a group of students from the _____ of the prophets there surrounded Elisha, asking, "Do you know that the Lord is going to take your master from you today?"
8. [Thursday's lesson] Read Acts 2:2-11. Ask an adult to tell you about a time God's Spirit gave them _____. Tell that adult about a time God's Spirit gave you _____, if you can think of one.
9. The men set out again. The sun was higher & hotter now. They stepped off the road to make way for a long caravan of merchants. Tall _____ stepping haughtily. Drivers joking with each other.
10. So they walked on & talked as old friends do. Elisha tucked away every word Elijah said to him. Suddenly a wild _____ began to blow.
