  5. Then King David decided to set things right by finally getting the ark to Jerusalem, where it could be a _____ for the whole nation. So he sent 30,000 men to move the ark to the tent he had set up especially for it.
  8. King David gave orders for the ark to be placed in the house of Obed-Edom. The ark stayed there for _____ months. During that time Obed-Edom's entire family was blessed. When David heard about this, he realized that God's presence, when treated with respect & honor, results in great blessing.
  9. The ark had special round _____ on each corner to be used whenever it was transported. No one was supposed to touch the ark. The priests were to pass a long rod through the rings on each side, & four of them were to carry the ark on their shoulders.

  11. [Tuesday's lesson] Review 1 Chronicles 15:16-29. Write a four-line thanksgiving _____ of your own. If possible, share David's _____ or your own during family worship.

  7. [Friday's lesson] Explain why you think Uzzah was killed while doing something that may seem _____. What can you learn from that?
