- The marble gleams milk-white again, with no green streaks. The brand-new golden _____ reflect the candlelight in a warm glow. The Temple is reopened, & Temple services resume.
- FTWTF - Power Point
- When the Temple is beautiful once more, there is still money enough to replace the silver & gold _____ & other items that Joash's wicked grandmother stole for her worship of Baal.
- His _____ crown sits crookedly on his head. This was his father's too. And yet he is king, so no one dares laugh at him. Beside him walks his uncle Jehoiada, the high priest of the Temple.
- FTWTF - Power Text
- At the end of every day, the Levites bring the trunk into the Temple to empty it & count the money under the supervision of the king's secretary. The next _____ it is hauled back to its spot at the entrance.
- The marble is scuffed & worn with bowl shaped indentations, from millions of _____ scuffing sand across the surface, wearing the stone away.
- FTWTF - Title
- A large _____ trunk is brought to the entrance of the formerly majestic, marble Temple, & placed right behind a particularly run-down spot.
- It doesn't take long to collect a large sum of _____.
- [Friday's lesson] Read Deuteronomy 15:10. At family _____, act out the Bible story found in 2 Kings 12:1-15.
- A priest bends over the trunk to inspect it with a nod. He runs his hand across a hole big enough for shekels of _____ & jewelry to be put into it. The trunk will hold whatever gifts the people may bring to help restore the Temple to its original luster.
- [Monday's lesson] Read 2 Kings 12:9-12. Review the power text. Look for a small can, cup, or box that you can keep in your room as a special container for your _____ & offerings before you take them to church. Decorate your special container to make it look as nice as you can.
