1. Dad glanced at Brad in the rearview ____. "Sure, I can," he said. "But you can't use my examples tomorrow. You need to find one of your own." "Ah Dad, you are making it difficult for me!"
4. "Good one!" Dad exclaimed. "And here's another example. There's a text in Isaiah that says, 'Those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like ____' [Isaiah 40:31, NKJV].
5. [Monday's lesson] Read Psalm 19:1-6. ____ something using things you find in nature. Watch a nature program, read a nature book, or research something about nature on the Internet.
10. "Birds rub oil from a special oil gland onto their feathers. The oil helps keep the birds ____. Dirt doesn't stick to them. In the Bible, oil represents the Holy Spirit. When we have the Holy Spirit in our lives, the dirt of sin doesn't stick to us."

13. "You have to think about things for a while, & then you can make some of those connections," Dad said. "It's called '____' or 'ruminating.' Ruminating means to chew on an idea, as a cow chews its cud."

Down

2. [Sunday's lesson] Ask God to ____ Himself to you & through you.
3. FTWTF - Power Text
6. So the eagles use thermals-warm air currents that rise from the ground-like ____. A thermal can carry an eagle far, far up into the sky.
7. "Very funny!" Brad exclaimed. "And something else, too," Brad continued. "Every body is supposed to bring an example of how we can see God in nature, or how nature ____ us about God. Can you give me an example?"
8. "It's like when we pray for the Holy Spirit in our lives & then just let Him carry us closer to God. We don't get closer to God by ____ around wearing ourselves out doing good works," Dad added.
9. "If you chew on God's Word, you'll become strong & healthy spiritually. You will be protected against the ____ of sin. Then people will be able to see what God is doing in your life. They'll know what you've been chewing on!"
