2. One story troubled them: the story of the rebellion in heaven. Angels told Adam & Eve the sad story of Lucifer, the brilliant one who had ____ against God. They explained how he had traveled from world to world trying to gain new members for his war against God.
7. [Wednesday's lesson] Read Matthew 15:19 & 1 Corinthians 15:22. ____ on how Adam's sin brought death while Jesus' sacrifice offers eternal life for all who believe.
10. [Friday's lesson] Tell someone what you have learned about how sin changed human ____ & how God can change us into His likeness.
11. "You will not certainly die," sounded the smooth, tempting voice of the _____. "For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, & you will be like God, knowing good & evil."
12. Adam & Eve realized the change in themselves that sin had caused. Where they were once happy, they were now sad. Where they once had ____, they were now afraid.
13. "Eve, what have you done?" he asked with a terrified look on his face after listening to her account. Adam realized the ____ of Eve's act. He knew that the consequences of her sin would lead to death.
14. Eve felt the tiny feet of a ____ when it landed on her hand, & she woke up. The tiny wings waved as if saying, "Wake up, you sleepy head."
1. "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden?'" a tantalizing voice seemed to come out of nowhere as if reading her mind & answering her unspoken question. Eve looked around. No one was there, neither Adam, nor an ____.
