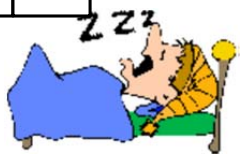
Power Text

Answer me, Lord, answer me, so these people will know that you, Lord, are God, & that you are turning their hearts back again.
1 Kings 18:37



Across

2. There was no crying, nor shouting. Just a short simple prayer. God's response was immediate. Fire like a giant ____ flashed down from the sky & licked up the wet sacrifice, the wet wood, the wet stones, & even the water in the trench.
4. After several hours, Elijah started taunting them. "Yell louder. Maybe Baal is ____." They yelled louder, cut themselves deeper, jumped higher.
6. Again Elijah immediately obeyed God's command. He started the long walk back to Samaria & King Ahab's palace. How different the land looked now after ____ years of famine. The ground was hard & cracked.
8. Elijah laid down the ground rules. Two separate animals would be prepared as sacrifices on two separate ____. The priests of Baal would ask him to accept their offering by sending fire from heaven to consume it. Elijah would ask Jehovah God to accept his offering by sending fire from heaven to consume it. The god who answered by fire would be declared the true God.
10. Elijah covered his mouth & nose against the ____, blowing dust. He walked through villages in which fresh mounds of stones covered newly buried bodies. Surely, he thought, surely now the people will be ready to return to God.
11. [Wednesday's lesson] Read 1 Kings 18:25-40. What does this story teach about worship? Ask someone to share their experience about answered prayers. Pray for those who are experiencing ____
