10. "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves & two small ____, but how far will they go among so many?" Andrew asked, incredulous.
11. The one called Philip looked at Him in ____ & asked, "That would take more than half a year's wages! Are we to go & spend that much on bread & give it to them to eat?" (Mark 6:37).
12. "Do you think He can hear you?" the traveler laughed. "It can't hurt," the fisherman muttered. Suddenly one of the children said, "Mama, ____."
13. People sat down with great sighs of relief. When everyone was seated, Jesus looked up to heaven, blessed the ____, broke it, & gave it to His disciples.
1. "I want Him to bless my children," said a woman with three small children clinging to her _____. "They have no father, & I want to raise them in the fear & admonition of the Lord."
3. "We saw Him a little while ago," said a man who smelled like the sea. "My brother followed Him in our boat. I walked this way hoping to meet Him." "Where could He be?" asked a man in fine ____ clothes. "I have to see Him before I go to Jerusalem for Passover."
4. [Thursday's lesson] Read Mark 6:37-44. In your Bible study journal, write about some ____ situations in your life.
5. FTWTF - Power Text
7. I don't know how long we stood there listening to Him. He gave us so much hope-unlike the priests & rulers. Even the little children didn't fuss. Suddenly I noticed that the sun was sinking in the west. My ____ started to growl. I heard the disciples telling Jesus that we needed to leave so we could eat. Jesus said the strangest thing to them, "You give them something to eat."
8. [Tuesday's lesson] Read Mark 6:32-36. Jesus was planning to have some ____ time with His disciples. How do you think they felt when they saw that the people had followed them?
