3. Once again John played with his reed while he thought. He was the only disciple left, the last one who had walked & talked & _____ & lived with Jesus.
7. And later on in Bethany His good friend _____ had died. Jesus raised him from the dead too, but not before He shed a few tears Himself, as if He were part of the family.
9. The host would be embarrassed. But Jesus didn't like to see anyone suffering, even of embarrassment, so He saved the party by turning _____ into wine. Now, that was fitting in.

11. John picked up the reed & dipped it. The Word, the _____ of who God was, took on human form & became a man. "The Word became flesh," he wrote across the parchment.

13. But it was more than just becoming human, John thought. He was such an unusual person. People responded to Him in a way they had never responded to anyone else. Huge crowds followed Him wherever He went. They invited Him to their _____. They brought their children to be blessed by Him. They loved Him.
1. John thought back to some of the miracles he had seen Jesus perform. The first one had been at that _____, in Cana. Whose _____ had it been? He couldn't even remember.
2. FTWTF - Power Point
4. [Friday's lesson] Read 1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Revelation 21:3. What will happen when Jesus' glory is _____ for everyone to see?
5. The scratching of John's reed pen on the _____ came to a sudden stop. Once again he felt the need to think carefully about what he was trying to communicate.
6. He was writing down what he had seen & heard before it was too late-before his _____ was gone forever.
8. [Monday's lesson] Read John 1:10-14. What does this _____ mean to you? What does it mean that Jesus "came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him" (verse 11)?
