- Jethro told them what he had heard about the Red Sea, the water from a ____, the manna-all the things that God was doing for Moses' people, who were now safely out of Egypt.
- Now Jethro had news of Moses. He called out to Zipporah & his grandsons. "Come," he said. "I have ____ for you."
- The next day Jethro watched the people flock around Moses. Moses sat in a seat outside his tent, & all the people came with their ____ & troubles. Big troubles, little troubles, they all brought them to Moses.
- "The work is too ____ for you," Jethro said to Moses, "you cannot handle it alone. Listen now to me & I will give you some advice, & may God be with you.
- [Friday's lesson] Read 1 Peter 5:1-6. What are God's instructions to the elders? What can I learn from these instructions? Finish your ____ be ready for Sabbath.
- "You must be the people's representative before God & bring their disputes to him. Teach them his decrees & ____, & show them the way they are to live & how they are to behave.
- Jethro looked out of his tent at his daughter Zipporah, who was ____ with her two sons, Gershom & Eliezer. He thought about the day his son-in-law Moses, Zipporah, & the two boys had set off for Egypt
- "But select capable men from all the people-men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain-& appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, ____ & tens. Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves.
