Power Text
"This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends"
John 15:12, 13

Power Point
Jesus asks us to love one another the way He loves us.

"Love one another as I have loved you," Jesus said to them (John 15:12).</li> <li>9. Jesus wants us to be His friends, spending time with Him &amp; learning from Him. "You are My friends if you do whatever I command you," He told His disciples.</li> <li>10. Unfortunately, they weren't ready to hear most of it. During the Last Supper, as Jesus was trying to prepare them for His death &amp; teach them about its meaning, the disciples started arguing about which of them was most important!</li> <li>11. "You did not choose Me, but I chose you," Jesus told the disciples (verse 16). He picked us as His friends so we can "bear fruit" by sharing His love with the world.</li> <li>12. Jesus got up from the meal, took off His outer robe, &amp; tied a long towel around His waist. He poured water into a basin &amp; began to wash the disciples' dusty feet.</li> <li>4. [Tuesday's lesson] Read John 15:13. Why was Jesus willing to die for you? In your Bible study journal, write ways you can ____ the love of Jesus to your friends.</li> <li>6. Jesus doesn't want us to be like servants, blindly following orders just because we have to. Instead, as we get to know Him, we will want to follow His example.</li> <li>8. Usually when people gathered for a dinner, a servant would wash their feet so the guests would feel clean &amp; comfortable. But none of the disciples wanted to do the job of a servant.</li> </ol> |
