- 4. John could see someone coming now, _____ along the shore toward him.
- 7. "Not everyone who comes to hear me preach is coming for the right reason. Some people are not really ready to depend on God. Some only want to get out of trouble. God knows who is sincerely wanting to live life God's way. Just working as a preacher or _____ isn't enough to make someone ready for God's kingdom."
- 9. John looked at the young man, who was staring past him. John's silent prayer might have been "Father, this is a hard message & yet it is so simple. Speak to his _____. Help him understand how to respond to Your love for him."
- 11. [Friday's lesson] Read Acts 8:26-40. In your Bible study journal, write about what was the same & what was the difference between this story & the _____ of Jesus' baptism.
- 12. "But what about the priests?" persisted the young man. "How could you call them 'deadly slithering _____'? Aren't they also trying to teach people about God?" John sent up another prayer for the right words to say.
- 1. [Thursday's lesson] Read Matthew 3:13-17. Talk with an _____ about what this New Testament baptism story has to teach you.
- 2. "Sir, what did you mean today when you told the people to 'repent,' & why are you baptizing them?" John said a quick _____, asking that God would give him wisdom to share His message with this young man.
- 3. "Do you remember the words from the prophet Isaiah about 'a voice of one calling: "In the wilderness prepare the way for the Lord; make straight in the desert a _____ for our God" '?" (Isaiah 40:3). "Yes," the young man replied. "I have heard my father read it in the synagogue."
