13. The whole town was talking about Jesus. They found the town crowded with people, including many ____, crippled, & deaf from surrounding towns. All were crowding in to get a glimpse of Jesus, to see His face, to hear His words, & to receive healing from His hands.

Down

1. John lay flat on a cold, hard slab of stone. The only sounds were the pitter-patter of ____ feet & the grinding of his own thoughts.
2. As the footsteps approached, he heard the voice of a good friend, one of his disciples. His heart slowly slid back from his ____ to its normal resting place.
3. His friend looked in through the barred ____. "Jesus is teaching & preaching in the towns of Galilee, Rabbi. Shall we confront Him? Isn't He trying to take over your work? Please, tell me what to do, & I'll do it."
