- "She was only 17 when God called her," answered Mrs. Cristobal. "When Ellen was a child, she was hit in the face by a _____, & that accident left her very weak for the rest of her life. She barely attended school, so she was definitely not the kind of person you would expect to deliver messages from God."
- [Monday's lesson] Read Revelation 12:17; 19:10. List all the Bible prophets that you can remember. Imagine you are a reporter. In your Bible study _____, write interview questions for a prophet.
- Kevin was a visitor. He had just started to come to church & did not know much about the _____.
- As soon as Mrs. Cristobal asked, "Any questions?" Kevin called out, "I have one." "OK, Kevin, let's hear it," said Mrs. Cristobal with a _____.

- "Look at the last book of the Bible, in Revelation 12:17. The apostle John is describing God's church at the end of time. What are the two things that are special about the church?" The sound of flipping _____ stilled as the students found the text.
- "I can," said Erica, waving her _____. "God gave her the gift of prophecy. In the early 1840s there was a group of people who believed that Jesus was going to come on October 22, 1844."
- "Look at Revelation 19:10. It tells us that Jesus communicates with His church through the _____ of prophecy. He sends the Holy Spirit to give messages to a person He has chosen to speak for Him," answered Mrs. Cristobal.

- "They keep the commandments of God & have the _____ of Jesus," Kevin said. "I know what the commandments are, but what is the _____ of Jesus?"

- [Wednesday's lesson] Find Isaiah 8:20; Deuteronomy 18: 21, 22; 1 John 4:2, 3; Matthew 7:16, 18-20 to discover the characteristics of a true prophet. _____ that you will know a true prophet from a false one.
- "She always said that the things she wrote were not a replacement for the Bible but were to help people understand the Bible better. It's like having a _____ in an unfamiliar dark room. It helps you find the light switch to turn on the main light."
