Lesson 05 Midnight Friend in Galilee

Across
1. "I've had unexpected visitors come to my house. Since my wife has been ill, she hasn't been to the market. I didn't have time to go either. Could I borrow three loaves of ____?"
5. "I wouldn't even have to think twice about it," said Father. "As with you, if you asked me for bread, I wouldn't give you a ____.
8. "I believe that is how it is with God," his father answered. "There is a big difference between needs & _____. If He gave us everything we wanted, it might not be best for us."
11. "OK, OK," he heard his father mumble. "I'm coming." The son could see the tiny flicker of ____ as his father stepped across the other family members' sleeping mats & made his way to the door.

3. "He & I have known each other since we were babies. Part of being a friend is being available when it's convenient & even when it's not. He's my friend, & he knew that he could come & wake me up."
4. Thud! Thud! Thud! There it was again! It's the middle of the night! Who could be at the ____? he wondered.
6. The boy turned to his father questioningly. "Do you think that means He'd give me ____ I want?"
7. "Here's the bread," the father said just as his son came up. "Now let a weary man get back to his warm bed." "Thank you, my friend," the midnight visitor said as he took the bread. "I knew I could count on you. Good night."

1. [Friday's lesson] Read Luke 11:5-13. Make special friendship ____ for friends who have helped you. Write the power text on them
2. [Monday's lesson] Read Matthew 7:9-12. Find the word "adversity" in a ____.
3. "A friend loves at all times, & a brother is born for a time of adversity" (Proverbs 17:17).

Power Text
"A friend loves at all times, & a brother is born for a time of adversity" (Proverbs 17:17).

Power Point
Because God loves us at all times, we are always willing to reflect His love to others.
