Down
1. Moses looked at the disappointed people walking back to their tents. When would they learn that they were to quiet their hearts in _____ when they had needs & problems?

2. At twilight, just as God had told Moses, a large migrating flock of _____ covered the camp, & the Israelites, once again temporarily happy, stuffed themselves & forgot their fretting & frustrations.

3. "It is the bread the Lord has given you to eat" (verse 15). God would provide this bread one day at a time, & the Israelites were to show their gratitude by carefully following God's simple instructions: "Everyone is to gather as much as they need. Take an omer [about two quarts (or two _____)] for each person you have in your tent" (verse 16).

4. "_____," Moses began, "is to be a day of sabbath rest, a holy sabbath to the Lord. So bake what you want to bake & boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left & keep it until morning" (verse 23).

5. The water had been ____; God had showed Moses how to make it sweet. But now they were facing the unknown again. Moses could hear their grumbling.

9. [Wednesday's Lesson] Read Exodus 16:10. What are things that you _____ about to God? Write about them in your Bible study journal.

10. Moses looked out over the entire Israelite community camped on the edge of the Desert of Sin. Just days ago they had been enjoying a beautiful oasis with _____, palm trees, & all the water everyone could drink. They had been thirsty; God had provided water.

11. FTWTF - Power Point

12. We worship God by following His loving instructions for our lives.

13. "So Moses & Aaron said to all the Israelites, 'In the evening you will know that it was the Lord who brought you out of Egypt, & in the morning you will see the glory of the Lord, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?' " (Exodus 16:6, 7).
