WHEN JESUS GOT THIRSTY

LESSON 5
Your Response to the Lesson

• What was most interesting in the Bible story?
• What activity was most enjoyable?
• What new things did you learn?
Work in pairs. Answer each other’s “yes” and “no” questions as instructed by the teacher.

Read John 4:14. What does it mean that Jesus is the Water of Life?
• How is God like water to those who are spiritually thirsty?

• How can we worship God both in good times and in difficult times?
“God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).
Wherever we are, we can worship God in the Spirit and in truth in response to His love.

• Share what the Water of Life means to you.
• Offer prayers of thanksgiving to Jesus, the Water of Life.
“God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).
Unity in Diversity

- What does Hebrews 10:25 teach about worship?

- What basic principles should we observe when we approach God’s presence so that our worship might be acceptable to God?
INTRODUCTION TO THE STORY

The Story

You may listen to a podcast recording of the story:

Wherever we are, we can worship God in the Spirit and in truth in response to His love.
Think about Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well:

- Read John 4:5-26.
- Teacher/Narrator: read story line/narration
- Boys: read the words of Jesus.
- Girls: read the words of the Samaritan woman.

What thirst was satisfied that day for the Samaritan woman?
Living Water

Read and discuss the following Scripture passages:

• Student 1: John 7:37-39
• Student 2: Revelation 21:6
• Student 3: Revelation 22:17

Why did Jesus talk about the Water of Life?
“God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth” (John 4:24).
Thirsty for God

Read Psalm 63:1 and Psalm 42:1, 2.

• In groups of 2 or 3 discuss how you can quench your thirst for God in your daily life.

• Make a plan for personal Bible reading for spiritual growth.
Wherever we are, we can worship God in the Spirit and in truth in response to His love.
SHARE THE LESSON
