Your Response to the Lesson

What was interesting in the Bible story?
What activity was most enjoyable?
What new things did you learn?
Suppose there has been a disaster and your home is the only one in your church not destroyed.

- In groups, design a step-by-step plan to supply everyone’s needs.
- What about others in the community? Who should you help first?
All About You

- Sit in a circle and talk about how an item you choose reminds you of your relationship with God.
- Give practical examples of how you can live in such a way that others will recognize that Jesus is your personal Savior and Friend?
“Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone” (Ephesians 2:19, 20).
God’s people are stronger when we support one another and work together.

God’s people are stronger when we support one another and work together.
Acts 11:19-30

• Read Acts 11:19-30.
• Use various maps of Bible times and current times to create a chart of people who shared the gospel when the early Christians were scattered.
• What was the goal of the early Christians wherever they went? How do you share Jesus at home, at school, among your friends, and in your community?
Read the following passages and discover who were those who shared their knowledge of God, with whom did they share, and where they were.

- 2 Kings 5:1-15
- Genesis 41:25-40
- Daniel 1; 3:19-30
- Daniel 2:46, 47; 5:13-29

- What did these people have in common? How did their witness help others?
“Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone” (Ephesians 2:19, 20).
Role play what is written on your slip of paper.

Why did you need help? What difference does it make when someone helps you? Name one way you can make a difference in someone’s life who needs help.
God’s people are stronger when we support one another and work together.
Plan a Project

- Brainstorm ideas of how you can support your church: pray for the church leaders, save money for a disaster relief fund, with your family visit and help church members who are in need.

In what way will you contribute today?
