Read Job 42

• What did God do for Job after all his losses?
• What is the difference between knowing about God and knowing God?
What God Is Like

• Look through the psalms and search for words and phrases that provide descriptions of God.
• Write them down.

What did you learn about God that you didn’t know before?
“My ears had heard of you but now my eyes have seen you” (Job 42:5).
Experiencing God’s Love

• In what ways have you seen God’s character reflected in your friends and classmates? Tell about someone.

• When has someone recognized traces of God’s love in your behavior?

• What changes do you need to make to reflect the character of Jesus constantly?
God longs to help us experience His salvation.
Sharing God’s Love

• Create something that represents something good that God has done for you.
• It can be a poem, song, picture, banner, mural, or something else.
• Whom can you show and explain the significance of this creation so they learn about God’s love?

Loving Heavenly Father,
Today we thank You for teaching us about Yourself. We praise You for being our great and wonderful God. Thank You for Jesus, who died for our sins. We are ready for Him to come back soon.

In Jesus’ name,
Amen.
